THE WHITE WAR.

Fresh Light on the New Medical Discovery.

"What are opsoning?" " Le dernier eri' in medicine. A method of fighting disease by rendering bacteria appetising." In the laboratories of London hospitals much patient and unostentatious work is now being done to turn this paradex into a twentieth century miracle. It is one Metchnikoffs discovery of the work done by the white corpuscles in the blood that the foundation rests. In every cubic millimetre in every pin . head-of blood is a population of five millions of the red blood corpuscles that carry the life-giving oxygen from the lungs to the further-most recesses of the body. The five millions of tiny red discs are the workers, the wealth producers of this miniature London-this "Corpuscio City." let us call it. They are fitted for the labours of peace alone, and in no way dithey act as defenders of their city. The duty of policing "Corpuscle City" is carried out by five thousand white becommedes tiny specks of jelly like mutter whose work in the blood is summed up 20 in the words " Arrest all vagrants!" The mothed of arrest is primitive, but exceed ingly effective : the white enquester day in the offending microbes. All this has been known for some years new, and it forms merely the jumping off ground for the modern expeditions of discovery. It has been found that the traids of malignant bacteris into the body are not only met by the actual fighting work of the "white police. There are other protective agencies at work. The blood itself, the clear liquid in which the red and white corpuedes float contains in visible substances in solution which act in very remarbable ways for the protection of

Imagine a host of mulignant microbus a gang of ruthless poisonars, let us say set free to distribute their venous through the liquid atmosphere of "Corpuscle City In cases of what we may call the every day microbes, they are at once attacked by the "white police" and devoured. But there are other virulent kinds which are dealt with by different and very poculiar protective agencies. There are, as it were, substances in the atmosphere of the City that are innocuous to the inhabitant but ioimiest to intruders. The microbes are "tied hand and foot. Those are invisible substances in the blood that have the poculiar power of "clump ing" together the bacteria, and so present. ing them from moving about freely. In typhoid fever, for instance, the action of the "agglutinins" is strongly marked.

The microbes are also dissolved away "Bacteriolysius" is the name applied to substances in the blend which possess this Tokohama, Kobe, Melbourne, Sydney, property. The process corresponds roughly though, of course, the "bacteriolysins" have no resemblance whatever to vitriol. In the treatment of typhoid fever a enteric fever- by prevention, such as was employed during the Boer war to render our soldiers "immune." the idea is to increase the quantity of natural "agglutinins" and "bacteriolysins" in the blood by certain methods of injection. The microbes are poisoned off. Strangely enough, it seems at present as if this " hactericidal" method were only of limited

The microbes are rendered appetising for the "white police." This extraordinary property is possessed by invisible constituents of the blood termed "opsonins," and it appears probably in the present state of our knowledge that the protective action of "opsonins" is the most important LILEOTRICAL and Latest Improved and generally employed of all the natural methods of defence roughly indicated in this 1379 article. Photographs taken from research experiments show conclusively that the "white police" will devour bacilli such as those of the deadly anthrax when made appetising by the action of an "opsonia," but will remain in contact with the "un-out a finger" to capture it. If doctors can produce in the blood an

COST OF THE COMMISSION

Financial minute No 82, for a sum of $14,000, was for taking down the evidence given before the Commission appointed to inquire into the working of the Public Health and Buildings Ordinance and supplying copies of the evidence to members. It was a large sum but was in accordance with the lowest tender received for the work and His Excellency only hoped that the cost to the Government in money and to the members of the Commission in the time they had spent in the inquiry would be compensated for by the good the Commission's report, when submitted, would produce. Financial minute No 83, for the sum of $600, was to cover the cost of various damages done by the typhoons on September 18th and 29th.

The motion was carried and the minutes referred to the Finance Committee. BILL WITHDRAWN.

WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND. The Hon Colonial Secretary moved the first reading of a Bill entitled An Ordinance to smend the Widows' and Orphans Pension Fund Ordinance, 1900.

The Hon Colonial Treasurer seconded and the Bill was read a first time.

THE MERCHANT SHIPPING ORDINANCE. The Hon. Colonial Secretary moved that the Council go into committee on the Birl entitled An Ordinance further to smend the Merchant Shipping Ordinance, 1899, and for other purposes.

The Hon. Colonial Secretary stated that the Bill had already been considered in committee but he moved that it be recommitted for further alterations. The motion was carried and the Bill Considered in committee. On the Council resuming His Excellency the Governor reported that the Bill had passed through committee with a few minor alterations, On the motion of the Hon. Colonial Secretary seconded by the Hon. Colonial Treasurer the Bill was read a third time and became law.

The Council adjourned until Thursday next at 2,30 p.m. QUEEN'S COLLIGE. The report of Mesers E. A. Irving, W. W. Pearse and A. H. Gott, examiners of Queen's College, was laid on the table. The report stated interalia:-"The only important criticism we have to make, is that the boys in many of the divisions are somewhat elothful. This is capacially true of their attitude when questioned orally; and some of the higher divisions are the worst offenders. In one divisson boys previously mute found their tongues when they discovered that they would be kept standing till they did so. The great numbers at the College, with the lack of sufficient accommodation, have led to economies of space which are very prejudicial to good teaching. The congregation of several divisions in the big hall was commented on in last year's report. In the other rooms the boys are arranged in solid squares, a formation calculated to save all

Only one room has a fire place. Single or dual deska adaptable to the stature of the pupils are used in all well equipped schools. Many of the rooms are badly lighted, both as to the quantity of the light and its direction.

Many of the rooms are over-crowded. After the upsatisfactory nature of the desks, the most obvious deficiency is the lack of wall maps and pictures. Maps are kept in a separate room, and have to be cent for when required. This may prove a saving of wear and tear; but it is a false economy from an educational point of view.

of Christian Science in regard to mortal mind is unintelligible nonsense." Without any help, therefore, f om this excursion to mortal mind," we must return and come to a conclusion regarding matter.

The contrast between matter and mind is palpable to all. Matter, as commonly understood appeals to the five sesses, mind is invisible, cannot be handled, etc., They have appeared so irreconcilable, that many have denied one or the other. Mrs Eddy chooses to dony metter. in doing it, she conveys the impresalon that, concerning the mind's relation to matter she is in the crudest stage of thought. No one here would dream of putting it as 5 p.m. on the 14th instant. though we could only rodies a book, as actually existing; by having the book, as a lump of matter, flung into the thinking mind. Of matter, in that way, we of course, are not conscious; it does not exist for us. It would be altogether beyond our range to attempt to analyse matter and it would be tedious to you to quote physical theories showing, along mental and spiritual lines, the affinity between mind and matter; but that matter exists, we know, by minnelly Masses of matter thrown into the thinking mind is an absurd way of regarding the connection and in the absence of this it is absurd to deny the reality of matter. So far as we are concerned, the reality of matter is entirely the result of mental process audithat alone.

The deeper thought goes on this exhipert the more deer it appear that matter is an expression of mind, and that these two opposites may an exist without the excritice of either in the interests of unity Though all unknown, apparently, to Mrs i ddy, the most modern Physical Scientists are afford ing wonderful glimpses into the mation between mind and matter, regarding them both as actualities. In view of even lithese, the audacious samoonement that "Christian Science reveals nothing it Spirit out of which to create matter," (278), is seen to be one of those presuroptuous assertions which often comes from minds that do not penetrate beneath the surface, and which, by their audacity, often lead captive the busy or unreflecting. An Expected Clan Fight.

(By Our Special Correspondent.)

Having had the first information that: clan fight of a most serious nature was about to take place in a vicinity some miles from Kongmoon, the CHINA MAIL sent me to the front to gather first-hand information the war to be in, nor could I precipitate it gathered a few necessoury articles and boarded the river steamer "Hei Sang According to the information of the

In the ness with which they came; the lake also produced a kind of fish which, when taken by any one, would at once reduce him or her to water, leaving behind only the hair. Finally a man called Lo Ban came and looked round the place. He advised that if a padoga was built, the storms would no hundreds of thousands of citizens assembled longer frequent the vicinity, the poisonous fish would cease to exist, and the value of the place with regard to fungaci would be looking stone lions. Inside there are greatly increased. His advice was at once acted upon, the pagoda was built, and it is said the cycle have since been mysteriously removed. The man Lo Ban, who up to this day is looked upon by masons and sent abroad at the expense of the Governcarpenters as their saint, is said to have ordered that the pagoda should never grow old, but that it should always fall, through-it might decay; and this day, it is very strange, it does look new when seen at a distance, In view of this finzen, we are emboldened although it has been built for hundreds war, in company with the officer in charge of years. sanguine that sooner or later a fight is inovitable, as both parties have purchased arms and ammunition to the value of thousands of dollars. Many forts have been built and works of defence to protect the villages are being pushed forward very rapidly. Temporary suspension of operations was due to the non-arrival of further consignments of aumunition for both parties. Unless the local authorities took extreme measures, it was feared tha a conflict would take place very shortly As it was, however, my mission was abortive. I could not sit down and wait for

On either bank of the San Wuiriver, are farms where palm-trees are grown in abundance. Thereis a rule regulating the passers by who may wonful desire to cut a leaf of two to protect themselves from the sun or rain. It orders that during hot weather every passer-by is entitled to two leaves free of charge and in rainy weather three. But if any one exceeds this limit, he shall be charged accordingly. It has been estimated that palm-leaf fans yield something over 83,000,000 a year, on account of the vast demand for the articles throughout the UUIVITAIVI. Chinese Empire and abroad. Toliscoogrowing is also paying. The product is monthly monopolised by the Chu Cheong Lan, Chu Van Lan, Lo Ki Sang and others who have branches in Kongmoen and

Straita America, etc.

Perhaps San Wui is the most up to-date of all cities in South China with regard to the teaching of modern learning. Since the abolition by Imperial Edict last year of liturary examinations, no fewer than nine modern colleges have been established. amongst which may be mentioned the Sai Nam College, which occupies a very large area in the middle of San Wei City. By the THEY ARE courtesy of Lim Tez Kau, who is one of the founders of the college, I was shown every part of the interior of the building, which is divided into many airy rooms. The arrangements and system of teaching are pass agers, who numbered nearly a excellent. The subjects, which are taught seasoned at our Factory here strond, are at follow : -

Chemistry by Lim Kwok Kong, graduate from Japan : Drilling by Ho Kiu Ngon, Military College, Canton; Mathematics by Kwon Shek Wing; Chinese literature, by Wu Kiu Ling, B.A., Li Chun Wah, B.A., and Lim Man Chung, B.A.; and

English, by In Tat Che, of Singapore. After inspecting this College, which is managed end maintained by the people of the South West of the district and which has been sanctioned by the Educational Department of Canton, the writer was shown over the other colleges, one of which is unintained by the officials of the City.

A CONFUCTUR TEMPLE. The next place of call was a Confucius dollars. In the middle of the temple, is the statue of Confucies, measuring from seven to eight feet high, and on either side of this statue, are placed the tablets of all China's men of character. As a rule, common people were not allowed to offer respects to the sage; but this rule has recently been abeliahed, for on the 27th day of the 8th Moon, which is the anniversity of the birth day of Confucius. at the temple in which a ceremony was being carried out by the district officials. In front of the statue are two majestic many reserved departments, now converted into class rooms for the teaching of modern learning. It may be mentioned that students who pass their courses here are sent to the Colleges at Canton, from which, after a term of years, they will be ment for higher instruction.

MANGEUVRES IN THE CITY. On the 27th day of the 8th moon, students of the nine colleges, to the number of seven hundred, were ordered out to the Eastern Parade ground for manceuvres, at which the district-magistrate, a Mr Lin, a grandson of the late Lin Chak Tsoi, who was Vicercy of Canton during the opium of the military forces, was present.

It was undoubtedly very interesting to pagoda of Canton is also said to have been the officials to see the students marching forward and backward with all the martial air of a well-drilled ampy, when they received commands from their military leclare the accumulation of wealth by the officials remained at the Parade ground for several hours exposing themselves to the san all the time.
